

Announcement from the Office of Academic Promotion and Registration
Suratthani Rajabhat University
Subject: No Gift Policy 2025

In alignment with the government's policies and the objectives of the national reform plan on anti-corruption and misconduct prevention, the Office of Academic Promotion and Registration, Suratthani Rajabhat University, is committed to fostering transparency, integrity, and the elimination of conflicts of interest in public administration.

To instill an ethical organizational culture and reinforce professional responsibility based on honesty and impartiality, the Office of Academic Promotion and Registration, Suratthani Rajabhat University, hereby establishes the No Gift Policy 2025, as follows:

1. Executives and personnel of the Office of Academic Promotion and Registration, Suratthani Rajabhat University, shall refrain from giving or accepting any form of gifts, gratuities, or other benefits arising from their official duties, as such practices may lead to corruption or misconduct, both presently and in the future.
2. Executives and personnel shall not seek or solicit any gifts, gratuities, or benefits that are unlawful or unethical.
3. Executives and personnel shall not permit, consent to, or be complicit in allowing their family members to request or accept gifts, gratuities, or other benefits from individuals or entities that have business relations or vested interests in their official duties.
4. Expressions of congratulations, well-wishes, hospitality, or condolences on various occasions should be conveyed through non-material means, such as signing greeting cards, guest books, or utilizing online communication platforms instead of offering physical gifts.

5. Executives and personnel have a duty to inform external parties about this policy to ensure widespread awareness and compliance.

This announcement is issued for strict adherence by all concerned.
